

TEN PRESIDENTS OF THE MEDICO-PSYCHOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION AND THEIR
ASYLUMS

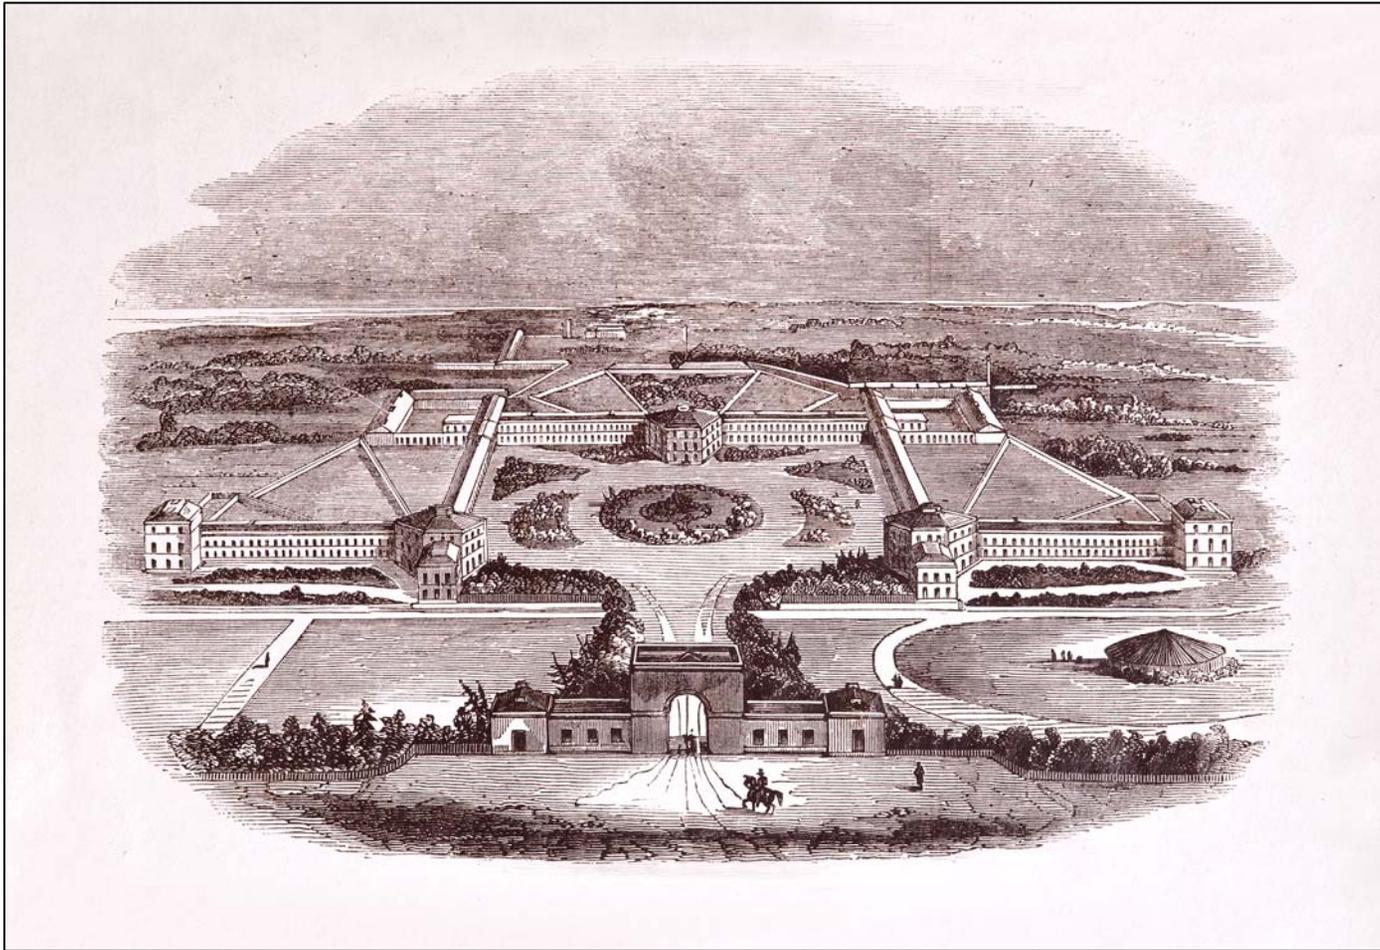

John Conolly MD DCL 1858

“Certainly, if such hospitals for the insane could be instituted, they would be the means of relieving many persons of refined education from a great aggravation of their sufferings.”

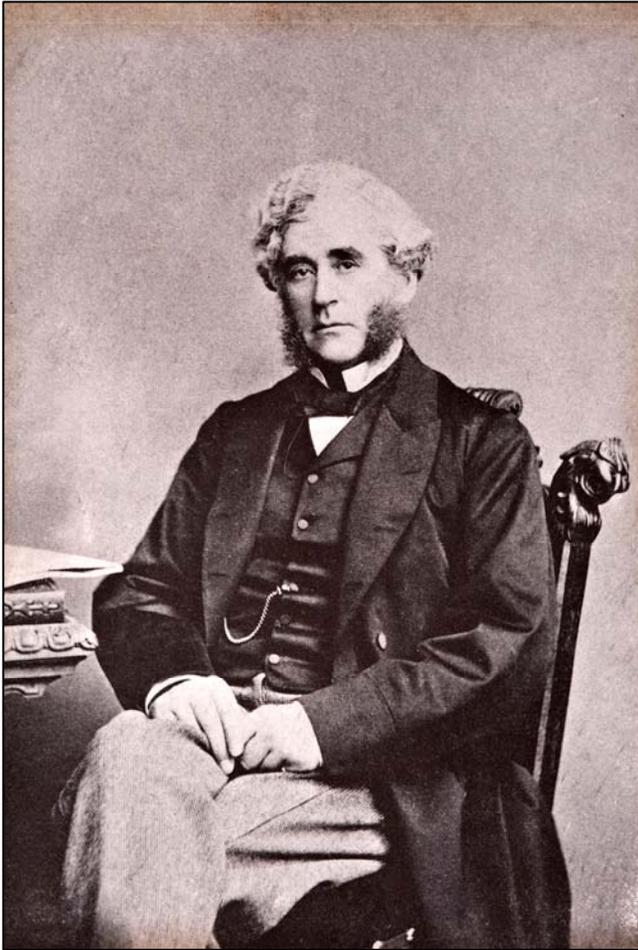

John Conolly

Hanwell Asylum

John Thurnam MD

1855

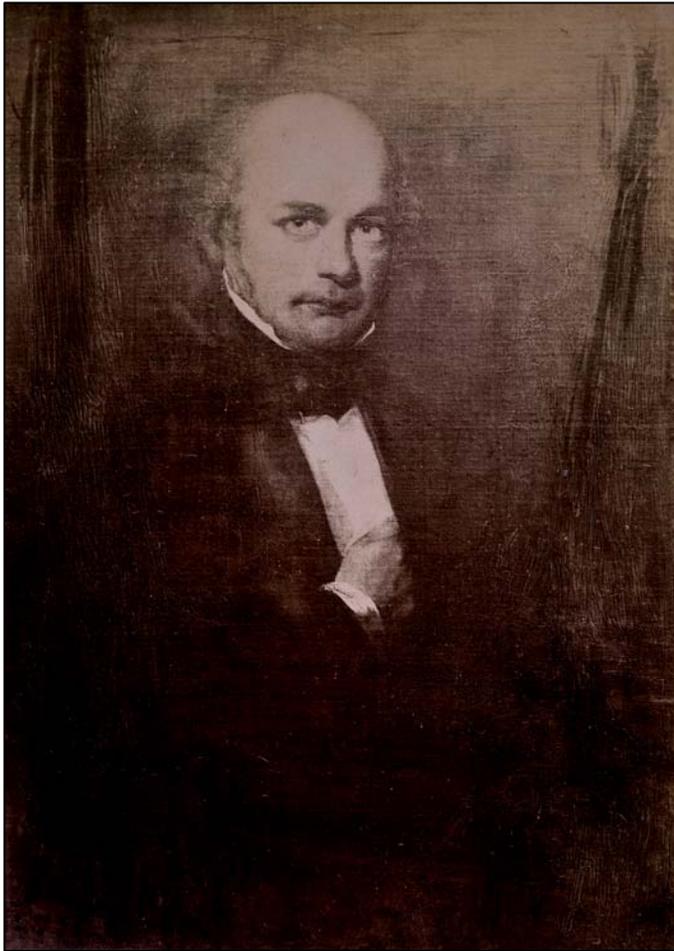

“ Though fully impressed with the necessity for caution in the application of numbers to the elucidation of the laws governing the phenomena of mental disorders I cannot share in objections which would apply equally to the use of statistics in the study of disease generally.”

J Thurnam

The Retreat

Forbes Benignus Winslow MD 1857

"We should entertain right notions of our duty and position; we should encourage elevated, lofty thoughts, and grand conceptions of our honourable vocation."

Forbes Winslow M.D.

Sussex House Asylum

SUSSEX HOUSE, HAMMERSMITH

Henry Monro MD FRCP

1864

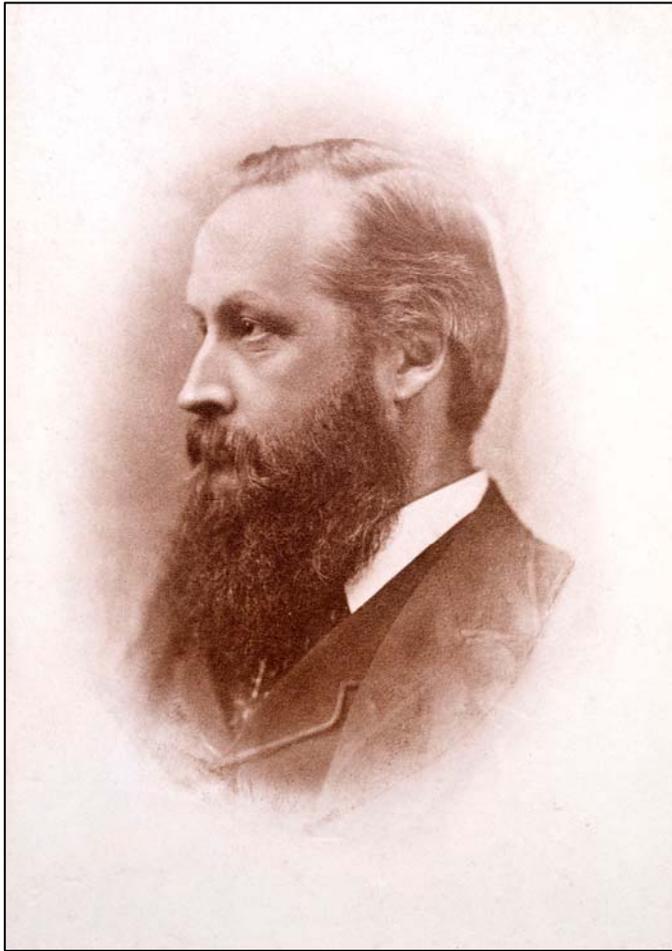

“There are various ways in which greater facilities for meeting, and especially in a place belonging to ourselves, might be of great service to the Association.”

Henry Monro -

Brooke House

Henry Maudsley MD FRCP 1871

“Let us never forget that the names which stand first in our department of medicine are those of men who had attained a high distinction apart from it.”

H Maudsley

Cheadle Royal, Manchester

James Crichton Browne MD FRSE

1878

"While we are thus hopeful as to the future of our speciality in relation to curative treatment, we are entitled to be still more hopeful as to the part which it is destined to play in preventive medicine."

James Crichton Browne

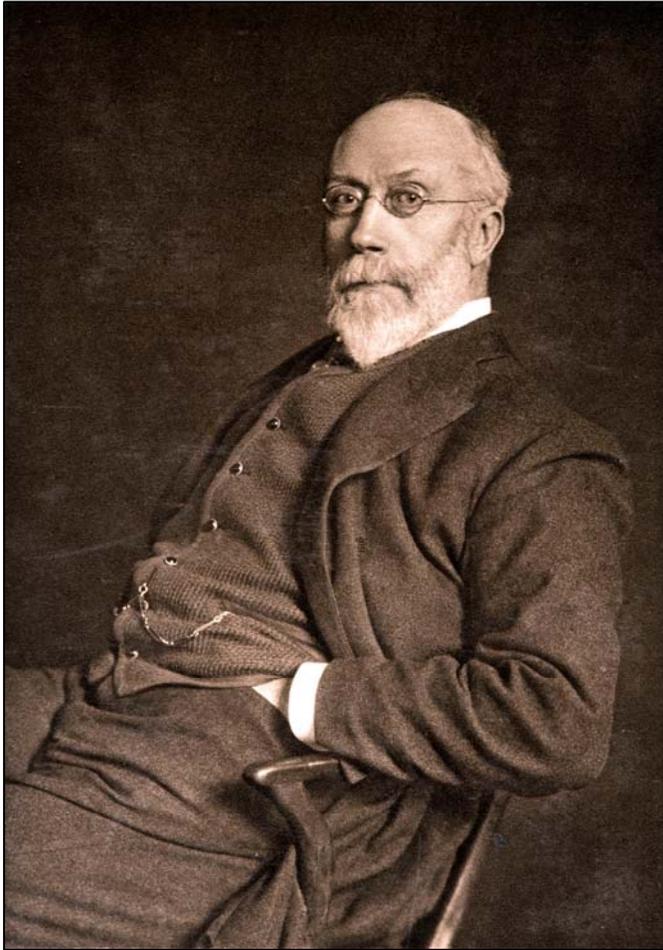

West Riding Pauper Lunatic Asylum

Landseer Engraving of the Asylum 1818

George H Savage MD FRCP

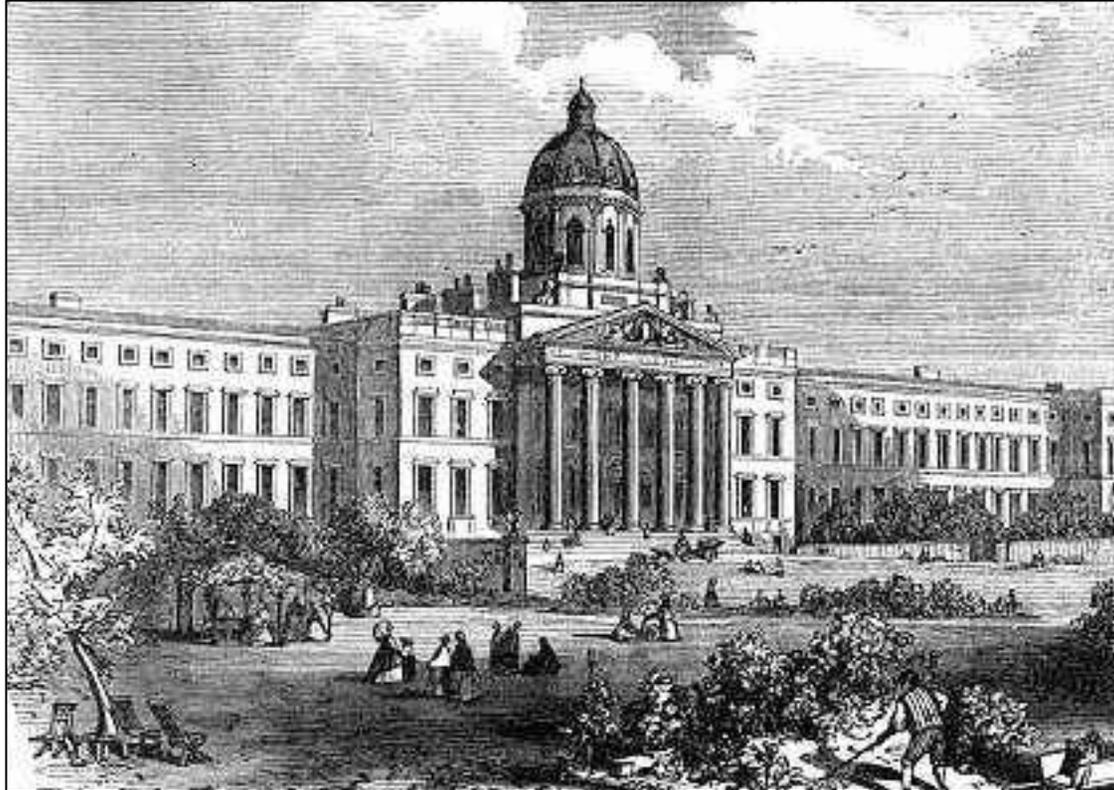

1886

*“My effort is to trace the great unity, not only in the development
but in the dissolution of the body.”*

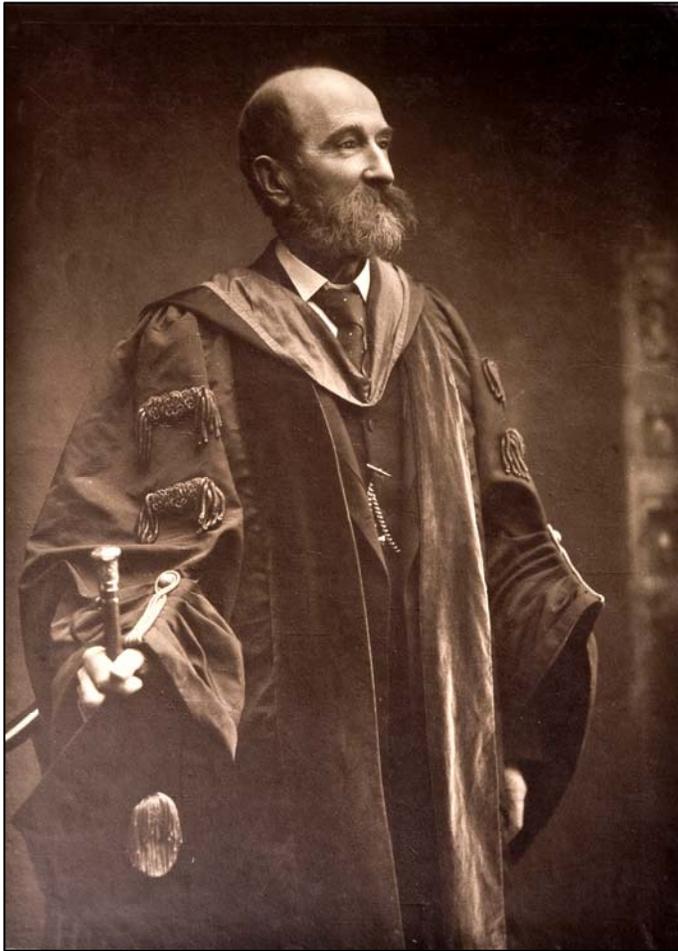

Geo. H. Savage

Bethlem Royal Hospital

Thomas Clouston MD FRCP

1888

"All we need is interest, the energy to inquire and observe our cases and the small effort of putting our results on record with a sense that this is a duty laid on each of us."

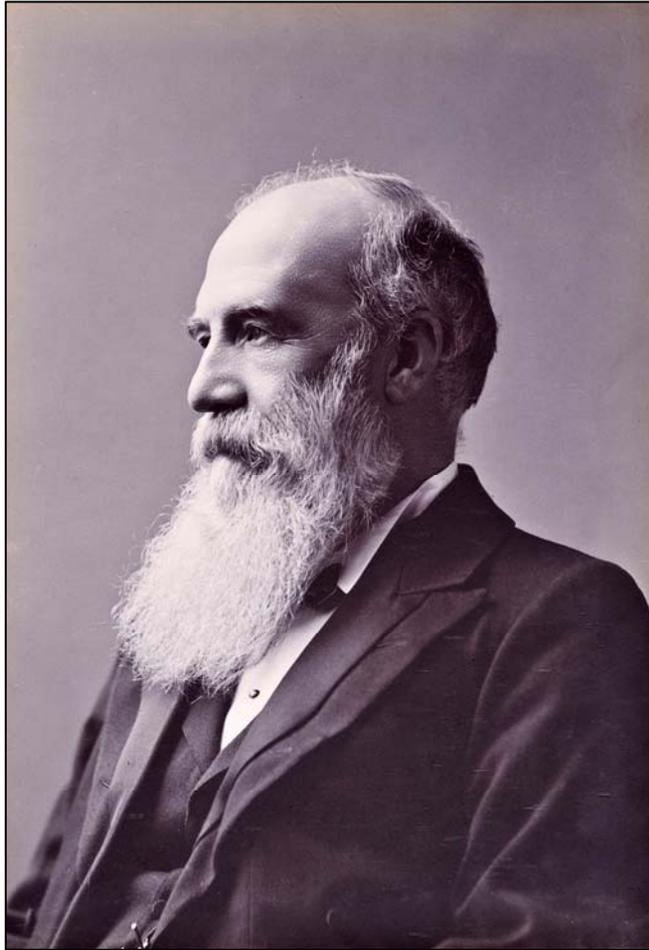

T. Clouston

Edinburgh Lunatic Asylum

David Yellowlees MD LLD

1890

"A wise physician seldom uses the word cure; his function is to help nature to cure, and he is content to be her minister and interpreter."

D. Yellowlees

Glasgow Lunatic Asylum

Glasgow Lunatic Asylum.

Conolly Norman FRCPI

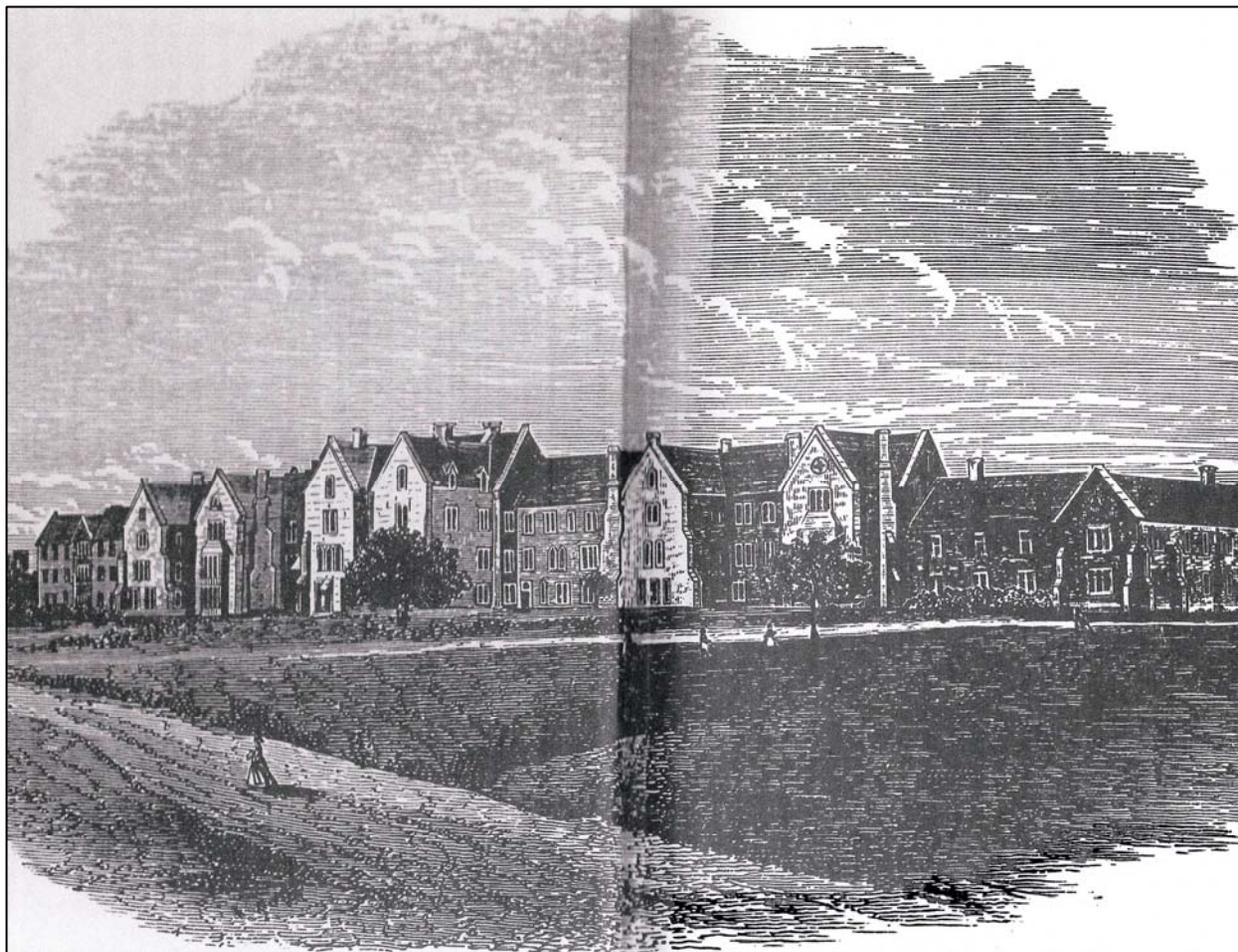

1894

"Everywhere, now, there is activity and energy in pursuit of pathological study, and the study of nervous physiology. We look forward with confidence to a rich harvest."

Conolly Norman
